JASON HUTTON

Boys

1 Rockford (14-1): So much depth on this roster led by junior Jake Bascom.

2 Muskegon (12-2): The Big Reds were dealt a major blow with the injury to James Martin last Friday.

3 Byron Center (12-4) The Bulldogs only loss with a full roster came to Rockford in OT.

4 Northview (11-3) The Wildcats are so underrated, Cam Ryans and Brady Swartz are next-level scorers.

5 Hudsonville (10-3) Junior Jovaan Daniels is stepping up for a talented Eagles team

6 Unity Christian (14-1) The Saders had OT wins over South and CC on back-to-back nights in December.

7 South Christian (10-4) Carson Vis scored 38 in a 2-point loss at Northview Thursday.

8 GR Catholic Central (9-5): Junior Zay Larthridge was 8-10 from 3-point range against East Grand Rapids.

9 Whitehall (12-2) Cam Thompson is worth the price of admission.

10 Grand Haven (10-3) The Bucs guards have been difference makers this season.

Girls

1 Rockford (14-1): The Rams have distanced themselves from the pack and Sienna Wolfe hasn't even played yet

2 West Catholic (12-1): The Falcons have not missed a beat despite a new coach in Derek Paiz

3 Grand Haven (12-1): Sophomore Mallory Woiteshek is a force for the Bucs

4 GR Catholic Central (9-3): The Cougars only losses have come to #1 and #2 on this list

5 Forest Hills Northern (12-2): The Sietsma sisters are one tough duo

6 South Christian (12-2): Sophia Prins runs the show for a talented Sailors squad

7 Holland Christian (11-1): So much height makes the Maroons tough to beat

8 Caledonia (10-3): The Fighting Scots are still perfect in the OK Green

9 Wayland (9-4): Harmony Laker is great on both ends of the court for the Wildcats

10 Zeeland East (10-4): The Chix are playing well in their first season under Troy Hammond
